

Job Title: Project Engineer- Welding and Fabrication
Reports to: Manufacturing Director
Department: Engineering

Established for over 30 years and now one of the North Wests leading Engineering companies, WEC is looking to recruit an experienced and enthusiastic Project Engineer to join our busy and expanding team based in Darwen, Lancs.

Responsibilities

This is an interesting and varied role, which involves working on some excellent engineering projects, bringing fantastic prospects for the right candidate within a rapidly expanding modern company.

Knowledge, Skills, Experience

Essential:

- Proven engineering and fabrication knowledge / experience / background
- Excellent knowledge of all welding techniques
- Computer literacy
- Excellent communication skills and the ability to liaise closely with customers
- Ability to work under pressure, on own initiative and as part of a busy team
- Ability to handle multiple varied projects from order through to completion
- CAD qualifications and experience are preferable but not essential for this role, training will be provided where necessary.

Working Location/Environment

Darwen, Lancashire

Company Benefits

- 25 days holiday plus bank holiday
- Free car parking
- Child care vouchers
- Cycle to work scheme
- Death in service benefit

How to Apply

All CVs to be sent to Gemma Kennedy, HR and Recruitment Officer, by email one gemma.kennedy@wecl.co.uk or by post: WEC Group Ltd, Springvale House, Springvale Road, Darwen, Lancashire, BB3 2ES